

CONGRESS SETS
ELECTION ASIDEMexican Legislators Fix Next
July for Voting.

HUERTA REMAINS PRESIDENT

Reason Given for Nullifying the Recent Election Was on Account of the Insufficient Number of Votes Cast—Action Taken Also Provides for the Election of a New Congress.

Hermesillo, Sonora, Mex., Dec. 10.—General Alvera Obregon, commander of the Constitutional forces in Northwestern Mexico, issued a proclamation offering amnesty to all federal soldiers who have been forced into arms. This announcement specifies that this does not apply to officers of the Huerta forces.

General Carranza authorized the proclamation.

Mexico City, Dec. 10.—The Mexican congress nullified the presidential elections. New elections are called for next July.

Congress, according to this action, expects General Huerta to remain in the presidency for at least seven months more and if the time necessary for the selection and installation of his successor is taken into consideration it will be well towards the end of September next year before he yields his power.

In voting that the recent presidential election was null, the deputies decided to fix the first Sunday in July 1914, as the date for the new election. They also confirmed the position of General Huerta as provisional president until then.

The action of the deputies was accompanied by no debate. The committee's report was approved without a dissenting vote. It was not until the last clause was read, referring to General Huerta as provisional president, that the chamber gave evidence other than that of a well trained organization.

Deputies Shout for Huerta.

When the reading clerk stopped some one began applauding and then instantly the deputies were shouting vivas for Huerta.

The measures taken also provide for the election of a new congress since the one elected to take the place of that dissolved by Huerta is to serve out an unexpired term which should terminate on Sept. 15.

The reason given for nullifying the elections was the insufficiency of the number of votes cast. It was stated that the entire number of voting places in the republic is 14,225 and that returns were received from 707.

Although there were no dissenting votes in the chamber on the committee report it was noted that the Catholic deputies absented themselves from the session.

Two Men Split $11,000 With Paving Company Agent.

New York, Dec. 10.—James E. Gaffney, brother-in-law of Charles F. Murphy, and Joseph D. Carroll, former treasurer of Tammany Hall, split $11,000 in commissions with the agent of a paving company under an oral agreement by which they were to use their political influence to obtain contracts for the company with the state highway department, according to testimony adduced by District Attorney Whitman's John Doe inquiry into state highway graft.

Two thousand dollars more of the commissions went, according to the testimony, to George M. Palmer, chairman of the Democratic state committee, in response to a request for campaign contributions made by C. Gordon Reel, deputy highway commissioner, through whom the contracts were obtained. The contribution, the district attorney learned, never was reported.

Representative McDermott of Illinois Is Accused of Acts of Grave Impropropriety—Resolutions Propose His Expulsion and Contempt Proceedings Against Officers of the National Association of Manufacturers.

Washington, Dec. 10.—All questions relating to the investigation of the Mulhall lobby charges were referred by the house to its judiciary committee.

This action followed a parliamentary debate over the report of the special investigating committee, arraigning lobbying activities at the Capitol and holding Representative McDermott of Illinois, a Democrat, guilty of "acts of grave impropriety, unbefitting the dignity of the position he occupies" and a minority report submitted by Representative MacDonald, Progressive, of Michigan, with resolutions proposing the expulsion of Representative McDermott and contempt proceedings against officers of the National Association of Manufacturers.

The majority report, which made no recommendations, was signed by Chairman Garrett and all the members of the committee except Representative MacDonald. For three hours and a half reading clerks droned through the reading of the reports. Then Mr. MacDonald introduced his two resolutions.

Representative McDermott sat in the front of the house while Representative MacDonald was speaking, but later left the chamber.

After a general debate over the parliamentary questions involved a motion by Representative Garrett to refer the subject to the judiciary committee was carried, 144 to 34.

Washington, Dec. 10.—With its authorized strength increased by 3,259 men the United States army lost instead of gained numbers during the fiscal year just closed. Including the Philippine scouts the army had 85,569 men, compared with 87,965 twelve months before.

Adjutant General George Andrews in his annual report commented upon the fact that 80 per cent of the applicants for enlistment at recruiting stations were rejected, while 14 per cent of those accepted subsequently were rejected at depots.

Desertions during the past year aggregated 4,451, or 5.48 per cent of the enlisted force of the army, as against 4.43 per cent during the preceding fiscal year.

HALT ANTI-TRUST PROGRAM

Bristow and Townsend Object to Work by Committee.

Washington, Dec. 10.—An attempt to begin preliminary consideration of President Wilson's anti-trust program by the senate interstate commerce committee during the currency debate in the senate was blocked by the Republicans. Chairman Newlands of the committee asked permission to hold sessions of the committee while the senate was meeting. Senators Bristow and Townsend strenuously objected.

"If we have to stay here thirteen hours a day to consider this banking and currency bill the members of the interstate commerce committee ought to stay, too," declared Senator Bristow emphatically.

Shelbyville, Ind., Dec. 10.—Judge Alonzo Blair instructed the jury to dismiss the case against Dr. William B. Craig, charged with the murder of Dr. Helene Knabe at Indianapolis, Oct. 23, 1911. The motion to dismiss the case was made by Attorney Henry Spaan for the defendant when the state concluded its evidence.

The sudden termination was not unexpected by those who have watched the progress of the trial. Many believed that the state had failed to prove the case which it outlined against Dr. Craig, who is dean of the Indiana Veterinary college at Indianapolis.

QUESTION RIGHTS OF NEW SENATORS

Possible to Postpone Matter and Allow Democrats to Serve.

FRIENDS OF ADMINISTRATION

Thought That Glass of Alabama and Lee of Maryland Will Be Seated. National Control of Water Power in Various States Causes Fight—Bluff to Protect Congressional Record.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Dec. 10.—[Special.]—The right of a senator to a seat in that body is a question of the highest privilege, yet a majority can postpone consideration of a claimant's title indefinitely. Consequently the "highest privilege" myth becomes operative only when a majority desires to make it so.

For instance, the senate never even held a committee meeting to consider whether or not Henry Clayton had a right to a seat on the appointment of the governor of Alabama. But the senate must consider the claims of Editor Glass, who has been appointed in place of Clayton. It must also consider the credentials of Blair Lee when they are presented—that is, if the majority prefers to take up senatorial seats and constitutional questions instead of other measures.

The Administration's Interest.

It has been asserted that both Glass and Lee will be seated because they are friends of the president and that he is much interested in having them made senators. When Clayton was appointed it was the almost unanimous opinion of the lawyers of the senate that the new constitutional amendment providing for the election of senators by direct vote had not been complied with.

Now comes the question of the Maryland election. Possibly the governor of that state failed to comply with the terms of the amendment, as he did not call the legislature in session to make provision for an election to fill the vacancy. Even the president's wishes will make it difficult to overcome noncompliance with constitutional provisions relating to selection of senators.

Water of the States.

It will be many years before the western men will permit the states to surrender their rights over nonnavigable water. Several emphatic declarations were made during the debate on the Hetch-Hetchy bill showing that the rights of the states over such water are unquestioned. Several times men like Clark of Wyoming, Sutherland of Utah, Borah of Idaho and others who are known to be lawyers of great repute made the emphatic declaration that congress had no right over the waters of a state. Quite a number of senators who supported the Hetch-Hetchy bill so expressed themselves.

And the one big fight in the recent irrigation congress—won by Clifford Pinchot—was in favor of national control of such water.

"A Worthy Purpose."

A letter was read by Senator Thomas, a Democrat, in the senate from a man who had done something which, the senator explained, "was for the sole purpose of preventing the Democratic party from making a blunder."

Senator Borah asked the Colorado senator if that was actually the case, and when Thomas repeated it Clark of Wyoming remarked:

"Indeed, a worthy purpose," declared Borah.

"And a very necessary purpose, too," remarked Senator Gallinger.

"The writer is also a very ambitious man," remarked Borah.

By that time Thomas knew he had "started something."

Same Old Bluff.

Once a month, perhaps more frequently, a senator or representative arises and declares his intention of preventing the abuse of the Congressional Record by excluding from it extraneous subjects, such as essays, speeches and other matters not pertaining to the work of congress. He is commended, but he never carries out his threats. Barnhart of Indiana promised to keep a watch on things hereafter and keep the Record clean.

"Swear him," interjected Farley of Illinois.

"That statement is made often, but no one lives up to it," declared Victor Murdock.

"Why doesn't the gentleman from Kansas live up to it?" asked Fitzgerald of New York.

"I do not have the nerve," responded Murdock amid laughter.

The Number of Days.

Senator Myers was making a speech and called attention to Holy Writ, which says that "the world was created in seven days."

"Six days instead of seven," remarked Gallinger.

"That is true," replied the Montana senator. "My memory does not extend back as far as the memory of the senator from New Hampshire."

"I trust," said Gallinger, "that the senator does not mean that my memory went back to that time."

"You can remember farther back than I," said Myers, "and you are a better Bible student."

DR. MARY WALKER'S VIEW.

Severely Criticizes Suffragettes for Calling on President.

Albany, N. Y., Dec. 10.—Suffragists who called on President Wilson were severely criticised by Dr. Mary Walker.

"These women obtained funds from many sources merely that they may dress in fine clothes and appear in public demonstrations," she said.

"They have no right to be bothering the president. I contend that congress cannot do anything for suffrage. The Constitution already grants the right to vote. The state laws must be changed."

N., his physician, went to the little horsewoman's assistance.

"Are you hurt?" inquired the president as he helped the little girl to her feet.

Miss Donaldson was bruised slightly, but she mounted her horse and rode away.

CAPTURE SYLVIA PANKHURST

London Police Also Arrest Three of Her Followers.

London, Dec. 10.—Neither strategy nor force availed to prevent the arrest of Miss Sylvia Pankhurst at Shoreditch, where she addressed a meeting held for the purpose of organizing a local company of her "people's army."

Miss Pankhurst seemed unusually nervous and appealed to her East Enders to save her from arrest as they often have done.

Surrounded by a body guard armed with clubs she left the hall before the meeting ended. At the same time a dummy, dressed to resemble her, was carried from the rear door. The police declined to be diverted by the ruse and made a sudden rush upon Miss Pankhurst, who was captured before her body guard could get into action. Three of her followers also were arrested.

"In choosing your next president you have gone on record as wanting a man who will lend dignity and prestige to the league," reads Mr. Lynch's statement.

"In your selection of Governor Tener you have the right man; but I hope that you will inject some of the dignity expected of him into yourselves and be a help instead of a hindrance to him."

"In leaving this office, I want you to know that there is no ill feeling on my part. I wish the National league and its new president all the success in the world."

President and Vice President of Frisco System Quit.

DUE TO AN INVESTIGATION

Petition in Federal Court at St. Louis Asks Permission for Receivers to File Restitution Suit Against Former Directors and Other Officers Who Were Members of Syndicate Which Built Brownsville Road.

St. Louis, Dec. 10.—The personnel of the receivership of the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad was separated from the directorate and officership of the road when W. C. Nixon and W. B. Biddle, receivers, resigned as president and vice president respectively and as directors.

Thomas H. West, chairman of the board of directors of the St. Louis Union Trust company, which financed many Frisco affairs before the receivership, and a director of the road itself, already had vacated the office of receiver—his resignation having been accepted—and Judge James W. Lusk of St. Paul succeeded Mr. West as receiver.

The resignation of Mr. West as receiver and the retirement of Nixon and Biddle from their railroad offices was due to the investigation into the affairs of the road conducted by the interstate commerce commission.

This was stated practically in the letter of Judge Sanborn, in which he accepted the resignation of Mr. West, and in the joint letter of resignation sent by Messrs. Nixon and Biddle.

Climax of Important Developments.

Their resignation came as the climax of important developments in Frisco affairs.

Two hours before they were turned in to the board of directors William Niles of New York, who owns 600 shares of Frisco stock, had applied through his attorney to Judge Sanborn in the federal circuit court for permission to bring suit against certain officers and former officers of the road to compel them to restore individual profits aggregating $3,975,000, which he alleged they had made in the promotion of feeder lines and their sales to the Frisco.

Judge Sanborn granted Niles permission to bring the restitution suit.

The Frisco receivers filed a petition in the United States district court asking permission to file a restitution suit against the former directors and other officers of the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad who were members of the syndicate which built the Brownsville road and then sold to the Frisco at a profit of several million dollars. This was the second suit of the kind.

CONGRESS SETS ELECTION ASIDE

Mexican Legislators Fix Next July for Voting.

HUERTA REMAINS PRESIDENT

Reason Given for Nullifying the Recent Election Was on Account of the Insufficient Number of Votes Cast—Action Taken Also Provides for the Election of a New Congress.

Hermesillo, Sonora, Mex., Dec. 10.—General Alvera Obregon, commander of the Constitutional forces in Northwestern Mexico, issued a proclamation offering amnesty to all federal soldiers who have been forced into arms. This announcement specifies that this does not apply to officers of the Huerta forces.
General Carranza authorized the proclamation.

Mexico City, Dec. 10.—The Mexican congress nullified the presidential elections. New elections are called for next July.

Congress, according to this action, expects General Huerta to remain in the presidency for at least seven months more and if the time necessary for the selection and installation of his successor is taken into consideration it will be well towards the end of September next year before he yields his power.

In voting that the recent presidential election was null, the deputies decided to fix the first Sunday in July 1914, as the date for the new election. They also confirmed the position of General Huerta as provisional president until then.

The action of the deputies was accompanied by no debate. The committee's report was approved without a dissenting vote. It was not until the last clause was read, referring to General Huerta as provisional president, that the chamber gave evidence other than that of a well trained organization.

Deputies Shout for Huerta.

When the reading clerk stopped some one began applauding and then instantly the deputies were shouting vivas for Huerta.

The measures taken also provide for the election of a new congress since the one elected to take the place of that dissolved by Huerta is to serve out an unexpired term which should terminate on Sept. 15.

The reason given for nullifying the elections was the insufficiency of the number of votes cast. It was stated that the entire number of voting places in the republic is 14,225 and that returns were received from 707. Although there were no dissenting votes in the chamber on the committee report it was noted that the Catholic deputies absented themselves from the session.

Two thousand dollars more of the commissions went, according to the testimony, to George M. The contribution, the district attorney learned, never was reported.

Washington, Dec. 10.—All questions relating to the investigation of the Mulhall lobby charges were referred by the house to its judiciary committee.

This action followed a parliamentary debate over the report of the special investigating committee, arraigning lobbying activities at the Capitol and holding Representative McDermott of Illinois, a Democrat, guilty of "acts of grave impropriety, unbecoming the dignity of the position he occupies" and a minority report submitted by Representative MacDonald, Progressive, of Michigan, with resolutions proposing the expulsion of Representative McDermott and contempt proceedings against officers of the National Association of Manufacturers.

Representative McDermott sat in the front of the house while Representative MacDonald was speaking, but later left the chamber.

ARMY LOSES IN NUMBERS

Drops 2,000 in Year, With Desertions of 5,438 Per Cent.

Washington, Dec. 10.—With its authorized strength increased by 3,259 men the United States army lost instead of gained numbers during the fiscal year just closed. Including the Philippine scouts the army had 85,569 men, compared with 87,965 twelve months before.

Adjutant General George Andrews in his annual report commented upon the fact that 80 per cent of the applicants for enlistment at recruiting stations were rejected, while 14 per cent of those accepted subsequently were rejected at depots.

Desertions during the past year aggregated 4,451, or 5.48 per cent of the enlisted force of the army, as against 4.43 per cent during the preceding fiscal year.

HALT ANTI-TRUST PROGRAM

Bristow and Townsend Object to Work by Committee.

Washington, Dec. 10.—An attempt to begin preliminary consideration of President Wilson's anti-trust program by the senate interstate commerce committee during the currency debate in the senate was blocked by the Republicans. Chairman Newlands of the committee asked permission to hold sessions of the committee while the senate was meeting. Senators Bristow and Townsend strenuously objected.

"If we have to stay here thirteen hours a day to consider this banking and currency bill the members of the interstate commerce committee ought to stay, too," declared Senator Bristow emphatically.

Majority of Flood Victims Are Colored People.

Houston, Tex., Dec. 10.—The crest of the Brazos river flood is passing Richmond, a town of 1,200, and threatens to overtop the bluff which heretofore has protected the little city from floods. A further rise would cause heavy damage.

Reports of additional life loss throughout the flood district have brought the total to 165. Of this number the majority were negroes.

JUDGE BLAIR DISMISSES CASE

Dr. Craig Freed From Charge of Slaying Woman.

Shelbyville, Ind., Dec. 10.—Judge Alonzo Blair instructed the jury to dismiss the case against Dr. William B. Craig, charged with the murder of Dr. Helene Knabe at Indianapolis, Oct. 23, 1911. The motion to dismiss the case was made by Attorney Henry Spaan for the defendant when the state concluded its evidence.

The sudden termination was not unexpected by those who have watched the progress of the trial. Many believed that the state had failed to prove the case which it outlined against Dr. Craig, who is dean of the Indiana Veterinary college at Indianapolis.

ROMANCE IS SHORT LIVED

Chicago, Dec. 10.—"The Romance of 700 Proposals" has been broken and Edward Van Doren Salsbury, Harvard graduate, is to be named defendant in a suit for separate maintenance to be filed in Boston, according to dispatches received in Chicago.

Mrs. Salsbury was before her marriage Miss Catherine E. Quirk, a Boston telephone operator, famed for her beauty. She met "Handsome Ned" Salsbury at the Yale-Harvard football game in 1910 and between that date and Oct. 2, 1912, when they were married in Chicago, it is said Salsbury proposed 700 times.

The couple lived together only three months, when Mrs. Salsbury returned to her home in Dorchester.

QUESTION RIGHTS OF NEW SENATORS

Possible to Postpone Matter and Allow Democrats to Serve.

FRIENDS OF ADMINISTRATION

Thought That Glass of Alabama and Lee of Maryland Will Be Seated. National Control of Water Power in Various States Causes Fight—Bluff to Protect Congressional Record.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Dec. 10.—[Special.]—The right of a senator to a seat in that body is a question of the highest privilege, yet a majority can postpone consideration of a claimant's title indefinitely. Consequently the "highest privilege" myth becomes operative only when a majority desires to make it so.

For instance, the senate never even held a committee meeting to consider whether or not Henry Clayton had a right to a seat on the appointment of the governor of Alabama. But the senate must consider the claims of Editor Glass, who has been appointed in place of Clayton. It must also consider the credentials of Blair Lee when they are presented—that is, if the majority prefers to take up senatorial seats and constitutional questions instead of other measures.

The Administration's Interest. It has been asserted that both Glass and Lee will be seated because they are friends of the president and that he is much interested in having them made senators. When Clayton was appointed it was the almost unanimous opinion of the lawyers of the senate that the new constitutional amendment providing for the election of senators by direct vote had not been complied with.

Now comes the question of the Maryland election. Possibly the governor of that state failed to comply with the terms of the amendment, as he did not call the legislature in session to make provision for an election to fill the vacancy. Even the president's wishes will make it difficult to overcome noncompliance with constitutional provisions relating to selection of senators.

Water of the States.

It will be many years before the western men will permit the states to surrender their rights over nonnavigable water. Several emphatic declarations were made during the debate on the Hetch-Hetchy bill showing that the rights of the states over such water are unquestioned. Several times men like Clark of Wyoming, Sutherland of Utah, Borah of Idaho and others who are known to be lawyers of great repute made the emphatic declaration that congress had no right over the waters of a state. Quite a number of senators who supported the Hetch-Hetchy bill so expressed themselves.

And the one big light in the recent irrigation congress—won by Clifford Pinchot—was in favor of national control of such water.

"A Worthy Purpose."

A letter was read by Senator Thomas, a Democrat, in the senate from a man who had done something which, the senator explained, "was for the sole purpose of preventing the Democratic party from making a blunder."

Sensor Borah asked the Colorado senator if that was actually the case, and when Thomas repeated it Clark of Wyoming remarked:

"Indeed, a worthy purpose."

"It is a worthy purpose," declared Borah.

"And a very necessary purpose, too," remarked Senator Gallinger.

"The writer is also a very ambitious man," remarked Borah.

By that time Thomas knew he had "started something."

Same Old Bluff.

Once a month, perhaps more frequently, a senator or representative arises and declares his intention of preventing the abuse of the Congressional Record by excluding from it extraneous subjects, such as essays, speeches and other matters not pertaining to the work of congress. He is commended, but he never carries out his threats. Barnhart of Indiana promised to keep a watch on things hereafter and keep the Record clean.

"Swear him," interjected Farley of Illinois.

"That statement is made often, but no one lives up to it," declared Victor Murdock.

"Why doesn't the gentleman from Kansas live up to it?" asked Fitzgerald of New York.

"I do not have the nerve," responded Murdock amid laughter.

The Number of Days.

Sensor Myers was making a speech and called attention to Holy Writ, which says that "the world was created in seven days."

"Six days instead of seven," remarked Gallinger.

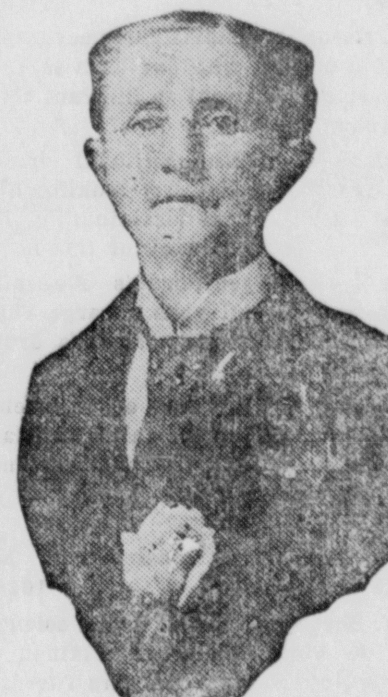

"That is true," replied the Montana senator. "My memory does not extend back as far as the memory of the senator from New Hampshire."

"I trust," said Gallinger, "that the senator does not mean that my memory went back to that time."

"You can remember farther back than I," said Myers, "and you are a better Bible student."

DR. MARY WALKER.

Declares Congress Cannot Do Anything for Suffrage.

DR. MARY WALKER'S VIEW.

Severely Criticizes Suffragettes for Calling on President.

Albany, N. Y., Dec. 10.—Suffragists who called on President Wilson were severely criticised by Dr. Mary Walker.

"These women obtained funds from many sources merely that they may dress in fine clothes and appear in public demonstrations," she said.

"They have no right to be bothering the president. I intend that congress cannot do anything for suffrage. The Constitution already grants the right to vote. The state laws must be changed."

PRESIDENT WILSON HURRIES TO RESCUE

Assists Young Girl Who Had Fallen From Horse.

Washington, Dec. 10.—President Wilson was walking in Rock Creek park when a riderless horse galloped by. He turned back and found Ruth Donaldson, thirteen years old, who had been thrown while trying to take a hurdle. The president, accompanied by Secretary Tumulty and Dr. Gary T. Grayson, U. S. N., his physician, went to the little horsewoman's assistance.

"Are you hurt?" inquired the president as he helped the little girl to her feet.

"Oh, no," she said. Miss Donaldson was bruised slightly, but she mounted her horse and rode away.

ADVERTISED FOR HUSBANDS

Sunday School Teacher Held to the Grand Jury.

Danville, Ill., Dec. 10.—Supported by her pastor and several members of her Sunday school class Mrs. Emma Burkett heard government attorneys read her advertisement in a matrimonial paper and dozens of letters from men in as many states who sent her money on the expectation that she would go to them. She was held to the federal grand jury under a $1,000 bond.

Although about forty-five years old and rather stout Mrs. Burkett in her advertisement, in which she says she is an orphan seeking a home, describes herself as "pretty, twenty years old, good form and kind and loving disposition."

$1,000,000 FOR PROMOTERS

Small Amount Goes Into Companies' Treasuries.

New York, Dec. 10.—Of $1,500,000 worth of stock in four wireless telephone companies sold to the public less than $350,000 reached the treasuries of the companies themselves; the remaining $1,150,000 and more was paid agents and promoters, according to evidence introduced by the government in the case of officers of the Radio-Wireless Telephone company, on trial on charges of using the mails with intent to defraud.

CAPTURE SYLVIA PANKHURST

London Police Also Arrest Three of Her Followers.

London, Dec. 10.—Neither strategy nor force availed to prevent the arrest of Miss Sylvia Pankhurst at Shore-ditch, where she addressed a meeting held for the purpose of organizing a local company of her "people's army."

Miss Pankhurst seemed unusually nervous and appealed to her East Enders to save her from arrest as they often have done.

Surrounded by a body guard armed with clubs she left the hall before the meeting ended. At the same time a dummy, dressed to resemble her, was carried from the rear door. The police declined to be diverted by the ruse and made a sudden rush upon Miss Pankhurst, whom they captured before her body guard could get into action. Three of her followers also were arrested.

TWO RECEIVERS RESIGN PLACES

TENER ELECTED PRESIDENT

Pennsylvania Governor Heads National Baseball League.

New York, Dec. 10.—John K. Tener, governor of Pennsylvania, was elected president of the National League of Professional Baseball clubs to succeed Thomas J. Lynch.

In a parting statement, delivered to members of the National league, President Lynch suggested that they acquire themselves some of the dignity which they expected Governor Tener to bring to the league.

"In choosing your next president you have gone on record as wanting a man who will lend dignity and prestige to the league," reads Mr. Lynch's statement.

"In your selection of Governor Tener you have the right man; but I hope that you will inject some of the dignity expected of him into yourselves and be a help instead of a hindrance to him."

"In leaving this office, I want you to know that there is no ill feeling on my part. I wish the National league and its new president all the success in the world."

Washington, Dec. 10.—Announcement was made at the interior department that Secretary Lane has designated nearly 1,750,000 acres of dry lands in Western states as suitable for entry under the enlarged homestead act.

Other states that have been filed are North Dakota, in which nearly 80,000 acres have been designated; Arizona, with more than 35,000 acres, and New Mexico, with more than 4,500 acres.

attended a meeting of the Crosby Commercial club Monday evening at which 30 or more members were pres-

The club wished to know how to get more farmers to settle in their vicininecessary, good roads and a fair deal in town when they got the farmers to visit Crosby. He covered the entire situation well and gave an address which pleased the club members.

A committee was appointed to look into the road matter and agricultural work suggested.

A Sensitive Soul.
Owen Mudge was a very sensitive man. More than once at a harsh word he had forsaken profitable work and gone home for sympathy to his wife.
One morning Owen started out to help Glenn Butler, who had bought a new stump pulling machine and was preparing to clear a field. Toward noon Owen came back. Mrs. Mudge sighed and waited sympathetically for the explanation.
"I just couldn't stand it," said Owen, rubbing his jaw. "When I see that stump puller twist them roots out it reminded me of the times I got my back teeth extracted. The first thing I knew I was limp as a rag, and I just ached all over and had to quit."

Oil on the Waters.
Oil may be applied to the sea in a hundred ways. In emergencies it may be pumped overboard. It may be emptied through the scuppers, through the ship's drains or by means of her pumps. Where it spreads the slapping, tumbling motion of the water ceases,
though the swell of the sea of course continues. Navigators for centuries have found oil of great value in preventing great inrushes of water that sweep vessels in a gale. With the combers reduced the vessel will ride the swell instead of running danger of being swamped beneath it.—Rear Ad-delphia Bulletin.

Telescopes and the Horizon.
In answer to a question, "Can a telescope extend the horizon of the eye?"
Edgar Lucien Larkin in the New York
American says:
"No; the horizon is a circle on the earth's surface having the eye for its center. Where sky and earth appear to meet the contour, dust and vapor greatly hinder the seeing in all telescopes. In fact, no good view of any cosmic body can be had while it is within several degrees of the horizon.
But in free space the telescope greatly extends the power of vision, but not the horizon. The telescope with sixteen inches diameter of the object glass brings millions piled on millions of distant suns into view."

Wesley and Whitefield.
In the mouths of Wesley and Whitefield the repeated sermon became both necessary and effective, for they journeyed and found new hearers for old sermons. Wesley, for instance, traveled 4,500 miles a year until he was well on toward threescore years and ten, and traveling, preached two, three and occasionally four times a day.
With Whitefield particularly the sermon gained by repetition. Thus writes his biographer: "It never reached its highest point of effectiveness until he had preached it forty times. Then it became on his lips a perfect instrument of persuasion." Whitefield, it has been calculated, preached over 18,000 sermons.—Chicago News.

IN MUNICIPAL COURT

Case of Running Motorcycle Without Lights Before Judge J. H.
Warner in Morning

In municipal court this morning
Judge J. H. Warner heard the case of P. Peterson, charged with running a motorcycle without lights. Peterson was found guilty and the judge suspended sentence, Peterson promising to be more careful in the future.
D. H. Norton, a transient, was up again for drunkenness and was fined $10 or 10 days. He paid his fine.

In the case of one A. B. Wolf, who was arrested by Officer Scott, the latter is out on bail at Staples. Wolf was arrested on notice received from the chief of police of Staples. F. F.
Richardson, living four miles south of Staples, charging that a horse had been taken. In addition it is claimed that a buggy and harness were taken from H. C. Miller's barn. If the charge of a horse is proven then Officer
Scott is entitled to a state reward of $200.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

Board of Directors Holds Meeting—
Membership of Association
Over 500
The board of directors of the Y. M.
C. A. recently held their regular meeting. The reports of the treasurer and general secretary showed that the effective work of the past months is being continued, and that in spite of an average of nearly one hundred ex-pirations a month the membership is still above the five hundred mark.

During the past month the association was visited by A. Bruce Minear, the international traveling railroad
secretary. Mr. Minear takes Mr.
Day's place in the work, and this was his first visit to the Brainerd association. He was much impressed with the effective work being carried on,
and left many helpful suggestions for making it still more effective. These will be put into practice as rapidly as practicable.

Mr. Minear spent about three years in the Panama in charge of the Y. M.
C. A. work there, and is coming here early in the new year to give a lecture on the canal and its construction.
This lecture will be illustrated with stereopticon views, many of which are from photographs which Mr. Minear took himself. Newspaper reports from other places where he has given this lecture are very flattering indeed, and the association has a treat in store for it.

The board was officially informed that Claude E. Leak, the assistant secretary, had taken unto himself a wife, and sent its congratulations to him.
Along in March the physical department plans to stage a gymnastic exhibition which will eclipse anything of the sort that Brainerd has ever had. The proceeds from this will be used to purchase additional equipment for the gymnasium. The boys are working hard, and promise to do honor to themselves and the association.

CLUB FAVORS EARLY ACTION

And Would Have Poor Farm Mineral Deposit Exploited in Order to Benefit Present Generation

PROPOSED EXPERIMENTAL FARM

New Officers Elected—Farmers' Week Short Course Favored and Arrangements are Made

An interesting meeting of the Commercial club was held Tuesday evening at the rooms in the Iron Exchange building and much business of an important nature was discussed by the members present, among which was the matter of leasing the poor farm as an iron proposition, bids for which are now being called for. The consensus of opinion seemed to be that in turning this property over special attention should be given to the contract and also that it would be much better to have it in the hands of an operative company, one of known reputation that would go ahead with the operations as soon as the body of ore was proven, than to allow it to get into the hands of speculative parties, even at a reduced price, for the reason that the revenue derived should be forthcoming in order that members of the present generation would reap some of the benefits in the way of reduced taxation by the wiping out of the bonded indebtedness. A. L. Hoffman led in the discussion and his points were discussed by R. R. Wise and Carl Zapffe and other men whose business brings them in touch with mining operations and whose discussion of the affair gave those present some insight into the methods used. The matter was referred to the mining committee who will take the matter up with the county commissioners at once and discuss the entire proposition with reference to getting early operations started. A. L. Hoffman was substituted on the mining committee to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the late G. W. Holland.

The matter of arranging for the Farmers' Week short course to be held here in March by the University agricultural extension division was taken up and President Zapffe was instructed to appoint a committee of five, he to be chairman, to make the necessary local arrangements. The short course is to assist those who desire to improve their methods in conducting their farms and their homes, and the work to be given is practical in its nature and will deal with subjects of interest to the community. It will be of high grade and will differ from the courses given in the several schools of agriculture, particularly in that they bring the school to the homes in the community, saving time and expense. The course will be open to any over 15 years of age who are interested in the work.

These courses are given in a limited number of communities where the interest is strong enough to provide adequate support, and Crow Wing county is fortunate in being among the number. By adequate support is meant that there should be at least 75 men to take the work in agriculture, and if home-economics is desired, 40 women should register for it.

The matter of an experimental farm was discussed and Messrs Peabody, Gruenhagen and Hoffman were appointed a committee to wait on the county commissioners to discuss the advisability of securing a part of the county poor farm for this purpose.

The secretary was instructed to confer with County Agent A. J. Garke with a view of arranging for a meeting with himself and A. B. Hostetter and the business men of Brainerd for the purpose of talking cooperation and arranging for the formation of a club for the betterment of mutual interests.

The president was instructed to appoint a committee of three to meet with similar committees from other organizations regarding associated charities.

The following communication from Secretary Hoffbauer, of the Booster club, was read:

By motion, unanimously carried, the Booster club, assembled at a regular meeting, wish to express their thanks to and their appreciation of the Brainerd Commercial club, in inviting to Brainerd the large delegation of Duluth Commercial club members, for the fraternal meeting did much to advertise Brainerd and its immediate vicinity and the resources here, offering boundless opportunities for investment.

Immediately following the adjournment of the regular meeting the board of directors, including the newly elected members, met in the committee room for the purpose of organization and the election of officers for the ensuing year, and the following gentlemen were honored:

President—Carl Zapffe.
Vice President—F. A. Farrar.
Treasurer—P. W. Donovan.

The matter of arranging for a secretary for the ensuing year was left in the hands of a committee consisting of President Zapffe, P. W. Donovan and Con O'Brien, they to present a report outlining the duties for the coming term and the method of handling the work, together with salary, etc., which will be taken up at a subsequent meeting for final decision.

On account of interference with the duties of several members of the board it was decided to change the regular meetings of the board from the first Monday in the month to the first Wednesday.

ASSOCIATED CHARITIES

Organized Charity Work Described and Questions Answered Pertaining to the Same

WHAT IS AN INVESTIGATION?

What Follows Investigation? What is Co-operation? Kinds of Responsibilities Enforced

In the pamphlet entitled "What is Organized Charity" published by the Charity Organization of the Russell Sage Foundation is taken up the question, "What is an investigation in Charity Work?"

It is not an attempt simply to separate people into worthy and unworthy. It finds out the causes behind the immediate situation and so furnishes the basis upon which to work systematically and persistently for the improvement of the condition of the family. Investigation means not only visits at the home, but visits to relatives, employers, school teachers, ministers, friends, and others who have viewed the family from different vantage grounds. The visits are made not only to gather information, but to get suggestions for, and help in carrying out, a plan for betterment.

Thus, a man who got on pretty badly with his last employer may prove to have a good industrial record with another and older employer. The older employer may be persuaded to give another trial perhaps, and, back at the work in which he was first successful, the man may do well again.

Or, to take another instance, the school teacher may testify that the children always come to school well cared for and in good condition, and this may have a distinct bearing upon the care of the family because of the pride taken in the children by their father and mother. At least there is more to build on where such pride exists.

Or, in still another case, the man's relatives and those of his wife may recall happenings in the past which throw a flood of light on his recent desertion, and suggest, moreover, which means will succeed and which fail in bringing the couple together once more.

Or, from the old neighbors of a family which has since moved may be gained corroborative evidence to the fact that the parents, now seemingly respectable, are really placing their older children in moral danger, by reason of their frequent carousings.

Treatment follows investigation, just as treatment follows diagnosis in the case of the physician. As everyone knows, a large part of treatment must be worked out by the patient himself; the physician can only help and suggest. So it is here; we must work WITH not merely FOR the family. A plan for the rehabilitation of a family must be carefully considered from all points, and to be successful, must include ways of winning the co-operation of the family itself and of private agencies, city departments or individuals, perhaps, all working towards the same ends.

We say ends, because usually there is more than one problem involved. It may be necessary to secure employment for the oldest girl, to arrange for a course in domestic science for the wife, to secure the co-operation of the truancy department for the wilful boy who shirks school, to ask the aid of the health department in abating a bad sanitary condition in or near the home, and to provide a certain amount of relief until the husband is able to return to work. A single family may present all these separate problems and more than these. They are best worked out in relation to one another, and this means co-operation, obviously, on the part of all interested.

Co-operation is becoming the watchword in the business world, but has been very little developed in the charitable field. People have gone on the assumption that it was the easiest thing in the world to deal with human beings. As a matter of fact, it is the hardest thing in the world. The best way to deal successfully with destitution is to have as many as possible of the individuals, societies and churches that are interested in the charitable work of the community allied together in the committees of the Associated Charities.

These committees, after obtaining full data from the trained workers of the Associated Charities, will agree as to the plan to be followed out and the part to be played in that plan by the different societies or organizations, including the paid workers of the Associated Charities itself.

Thus, in the case of a self-respecting widow who is struggling to support her three small children, the plan may involve the agreement of a church to give a pension of $2 a week on the understanding that another organization may agree to give another $2. At the same time, an individual may agree to find the kind of employment which will take the mother out of the home only a part of the week or a part of the day, leaving her time to look after her own household. This arrangement will mean the co-operation of the day nursery to keep the children under school age on the days or at the hours when the mother is away. Or it may seem best, if she is frail, to keep her at home altogether, by increasing the pension. It may involve also the question of giving special training to the young girl in the family who is near the working age and shows ability. She may be sent to a business college and may, as the result of a little expenditure of money at this time, be able later on to help quite materially in the bringing up of her brothers and sisters. Plans like these are under daily consideration in the society's work for families. In many cases the problems are more complex.

It must not be imagined, because the illustrations given so far refer to families in which the way to positive improvement is plainly indicated, that severer measures have not to be used in other cases, even though these measures involve incidental misery. One of the strongest principles of the work is that every one in a family or related to it must assume his full moral responsibilities, and that these should not be borne by the community as a whole.

The kind of responsibilities indicated above is best illustrated by the shirking of family duties by the deserting or non-supporting husband and father. The society takes no middle ground with reference to him, or the lazy adult son who refuses to support his mother. It absolutely refuses, and gets others to refuse, to support a family of this sort until criminal proceedings have been taken against the husband or son, or until he has been induced by milder measures to assume his burden. It believes, if worst comes to worst, that rather than encourage desertion and non-support, such families should be broken up. On the other hand, it agrees with alacrity to spend money to bring back a deserting husband from another state and punish him for his crime. When once it has a hold upon the deserter or non-supporter, it will do its best to reestablish the family. This policy may seem to entail suffering upon innocent people. If, however, these radical measures are not taken, the family will suffer cruelly; the severer course is the most merciful one. This is but one illustration, in rough outline, of one of the many ways in which the Associated Charities strikes at the roots of family disintegration.

DIED IN CALIFORNIA

Rudolph Kaatz, Father of Hugo A. Kaatz, Passed Away at Los Angeles on Monday

Rudolph Kaatz, one of the pioneers of Brainerd, passed away at Los Angeles, Cal., on Monday, death being due to pneumonia. He was visiting there with his wife. His son, Hugo A. Kaatz, received a telegram today that the body was being sent to Brainerd.

As near as can be learned, Mr. Kaatz caught cold and it speedily developed into pneumonia. He was a member of the Brotherhood of American Yeomen lodge No. 602 and of the Machinists union. He leaves a wife and these children, Hugo A. Kaatz, Pauline Kaatz, Elfrida Kaatz and William Kaatz.

The sympathy of the community is extended the family in its sad bereavement.

FIVE GENERATIONS

Eat Turkey at a Thanksgiving Dinner at Wells—St. Paul Pioneer Press Prints Picture

The St. Paul Pioneer Press prints a picture of five generations of a family which partook of Thanksgiving turkey, A. O. Allen, of Wells, preserving the record with his camera.

"Grandma" Hulda Grandy, 98 years old, headed the party. Five generations in a direct line is an unusual family distinction. Also novel is the gathering of the representatives of each of these generations at the dinner table, and particularly noteworthy is it when the occasion is Thanksgiving day.

A. O. Allen was the proud host last week when he carved the turkey for "Grandma" Hulda Grandy, 98 years old; her daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Hawkins, 66; the latter's daughter, Mrs. Ida Gillson, 47; the daughter of Mrs. Gillson, Mrs. Francis Johnson 24, and the latter's baby, Gerald Johnson, 3 months old.

Mrs. Grandy who lives with her daughter, Mrs. Hawkins, near Wells, was born in New York state, and came to Freeborn county, Minnesota, in pioneer days.

Mrs. Gillson lives in Pillager, Mrs. Francis Johnson is a resident of Brainerd, Mrs. A. O. Allen is a sister of Mrs. Gillson.

Mr. Caughie was for years a resident of Brainerd and will be remembered by many of our citizens. The telegram was from R. H. Land, master of the Tacoma Masonic lodge.

CALL A PUBLIC MASS MEETING

AN ASSOCIATED CHARITIES

Meeting to be Held at Trades & Labor Hall, Monday Evening, December 29

To secretaries of fraternal and other organizations, Bruce J. Broady, secretary of the committee appointed at the first meeting to organize an Associated Charities, has sent out the following communication which is self-explanatory:

"Pursuant to the action of a public meeting held on December 2, 1913, a committee was appointed and instructed to prepare a plan for an Associated Charities Organization for the city of Brainerd, and, further, to call a special meeting, the date to be determined by the committee, at which meeting the report of the committee should be acted upon.

"In order to insure a representative gathering at such meeting the committee deemed it best to ask the various organizations in the city that may be willing to cooperate in an Associated Charities, to each appoint three representatives to be present at a public mass meeting to be held at the Trades & Labor Temple on the twenty-ninth day of December, 1913, at 8 o'clock P. M.

"Will you kindly arrange for three representatives from your organization to attend that meeting, to represent you in whatever action may be taken, and notify the committee, on the enclosed card, of the action you take on this communication.

"We believe that Brainerd is sorely in need of organized Charity work of some sort, and request that your organization give the matter serious consideration, and join in this movement.

Or, to take another instance, the school teacher may testify that the children always come to school well cared for and in good condition, and this may have a distinct bearing upon the care of the family because of the pride taken in the children by their father and mother. At least there is more to build on where such pride exists.

Or, in still another case, the man's relatives and those of his wife may recall happenings in the past which throw a flood of light on his recent desertion, and suggest, moreover, which means will succeed and which fail in bringing the couple together once more.

Or, from the old neighbors of a family which has since moved may be gained corroborative evidence to the fact that the parents, now seemingly respectable, are really placing their older children in moral danger, by reason of their frequent carousings.

In other words, it is necessary to obtain information regarding a family from a number of different people, if the real truth is to be revealed and the real way out to be indicated.

Treatment follows investigation, just as treatment follows diagnosis in the case of the physician. As everyone knows, a large part of treatment must be worked out by the patient himself; the physician can only help and suggest. So it is here; we must work WITH not merely FOR the family. A plan for the rehabilitation of a family must be carefully considered from all points, and to be successful, must include ways of winning the co-operation of the family itself and of private agencies, city departments or individuals, perhaps, all working towards the same ends.

We say ends, because usually there is more than one problem involved. It may be necessary to secure employment for the oldest girl, to arrange for a course in domestic science for the wife, to secure the co-operation of the truancy department for the wilful boy who shirks school, to ask the aid of the health department in abating a bad sanitary condition in or near the home, and to provide a certain amount of relief until the husband is able to return to work. A single family may present all these separate problems and more than these. They are best worked out in relation to one another, and this means co-operation, obviously, on the part of all interested.

Co-operation is becoming the watchword in the business world, but has been very little developed in the charitable field. People have gone on the assumption that it was the easiest thing in the world to deal with human beings. As a matter of fact, it is the hardest thing in the world. The best way to deal successfully with destitution is to have as many as possible of the individuals, societies and churches that are interested in the charitable work of the community allied together in the committees of the Associated Charities.

These committees, after obtaining full data from the trained workers of the Associated Charities, will agree as to the plan to be followed out and the part to be played in that plan by the different societies or organizations, including the paid workers of the Associated Charities itself.

Thus, in the case of a self-respecting widow who is struggling to support her three small children, the plan may involve the agreement of a church to give a pension of $2 a week on the understanding that another organization may agree to give another $2. At the same time, an individual may agree to find the kind of employment which will take the mother out of the home only a part of the week or a part of the day, leaving her time to look after her own household. This arrangement will mean the co-operation of the day-nursery to keep the children under school age on the days or at the hours when the mother is away. Or it may seem best, if she is frail, to keep her at home altogether, by increasing the pension. It may involve also the question of giving special training to the young girl in the family who is near the working age and shows ability. She may be sent to a business college and may, as the result of a little expenditure of money at this time, be able later on to help quite materially in the bringing up of her brothers and sisters. Plans like these are under daily consideration in the society's work for families. In many cases the problems are more complex.

It must not be imagined, because the illustrations given so far refer to families in which the way to positive improvement is plainly indicated, that severer measures have not to be used in other cases, even though these measures involve incidental misery. One of the strongest principles of the work is that every one in a family or related to it must assume his full moral responsibilities, and that these should not be borne by the community as a whole.

The kind of responsibilities indicated above is best illustrated by the shirking of family duties by the deserting or non-supporting husband and father. The society takes no middle ground with reference to him, or the lazy adult son who refuses to support his mother. It absolutely refuses, and gets others to refuse, to support a family of this sort until criminal proceedings have been taken against the husband or son, or until he has been induced by milder measures to assume his burden. It believes, if worst comes to worst, that rather than encourage desertion and non-support, such families should be broken up. On the other hand, it agrees with alacrity to spend money to bring back a deserting husband from another state and punish him for his crime. When once it has a hold upon the deserter or non-supporter, it will do its best to reestablish the family. This policy may seem to entail suffering upon innocent people. If, however, these radical measures are not taken, the family will suffer cruelly; the severer course is the most merciful one. This is but one illustration, in rough outline, of one of the many ways in which the Associated Charities strikes at the roots of family disintegration.

DIED IN CALIFORNIA

Rudolph Kaatz, Father of Hugo A. Kaatz, Passed Away at Los Angeles on Monday

Rudolph Kaatz, one of the pioneers of Brainerd, passed away at Los Angeles, Cal., on Monday, death being due to pneumonia. He was visiting there with his wife. His son, Hugo A. Kaatz, received a telegram today that the body was being sent to Brainerd.

As near as can be learned, Mr. Kaatz caught cold and it speedily developed into pneumonia. He was a member of the Brotherhood of American Yeomen lodge No. 602 and of the Machinists union. He leaves a wife and these children, Hugo A. Kaatz, Pauline Kaatz, Elfrieda Kaatz and William Kaatz.

The sympathy of the community is extended the family in its sad bereavement.

FIVE GENERATIONS

The St. Paul Pioneer Press prints a picture of five generations of a family which partook of Thanksgiving turkey, A. O. Allen, of Wells, preserving the record with his camera.

"Grandma" Hulda Grandy, 98 years old, headed the party. Five generations in a direct line is an unusual family distinction. Also novel is the gathering of the representatives of each of these generations at the dinner table, and particularly noteworthy is it when the occasion is Thanksgiving day.

A. O. Allen was the proud host last week when he carved the turkey for "Grandma" Hulda Grandy, 98 years old; her daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Hawkins, 66; the latter's daughter, Mrs. Ida Gillson, 47; the daughter of Mrs. Gillson, Mrs. Francis Johnson 24, and the latter's baby, Gerald Johnson, 3 months old.

Mrs. Grandy who lives with her daughter, Mrs. Hawkins, near Wells, was born in New York state, and came to Freeborn county, Minnesota, in pioneer days. Mrs. Gillson lives in Pillager. Mrs. Francis Johnson is a resident of Brainerd, Mrs. A. O. Allen is a sister of Mrs. Gillson.

DEATH OF ROBERT CAUGHIE

Member of Local Lodge of Masons Passed Away in Tacoma, Wash., on December 9

G. W. Chadbourne is in receipt of a telegram dated of Tacoma, Wash., Dec. 9th., conveying the intelligence of the death of Robert Caughie in that city. Mr. Caughie was for years a resident of Brainerd and will be remembered by many of our citizens. The telegram was from R. H. Land, master of the Tacoma Masonic lodge.

Meeting to be Held at Trades & Labor Hall, Monday Evening, December 29

To secretaries of fraternal and other organizations, Bruce J. Broady, secretary of the committee appointed at the first meeting to organize an Associated Charities, has sent out the following communication which is self-explanatory:

"Pursuant to the action of a public meeting held on December 2, 1913, a committee was appointed and instructed to prepare a plan for an Associated Charities Organization for the city of Brainerd, and, further, to call a special meeting, the date to be determined by the committee, at which meeting the report of the committee should be acted upon.

"In order to insure a representative gathering at such meeting the committee deemed it best to ask the various organizations in the city that may be willing to cooperate in an Associated Charities, to each appoint three representatives to be present at a public mass meeting to be held at the Trades & Labor Temple on the twenty-ninth day of December, 1913, at 8 o'clock P. M.

"Will you kindly arrange for three representatives from your organization to attend that meeting, to represent you in whatever action may be taken, and notify the committee, on the enclosed card, of the action you take on this communication.

"We believe that Brainerd is sorely in need of organized Charity work of some sort, and request that your organization give the matter serious consideration, and join in this movement.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. CHARTER MEETING TONIGHT

All Friends of Progressive City Government Should Meet in Council Chamber Tonight

Good government does not work automatically. It requires the hearty support of all good citizens to secure the best for any community. The Brainerd charter commission has submitted to the voters of the city a progressive charter which will do more, if adopted, than the average individual thinks, to put Brainerd in the fore front among the other cities of the state but its virtues must be made known to the voters of the city.

A meeting will be held in the council chambers tonight and it is urged that all who are interested in the new charter be present and help plan to give it the needed publicity. Several cities have failed to pass a good charter for the lack of publicity. The charter's friends do not want this to be the case in Brainerd. The election will be held January 6th.

His Queer Doctrines.

Two centuries have passed since the Scottish judge, Lord Monboddo, was born. In his "Origin and Progress of Language" he argued that human beings should be studied like other animals, but this doctrine seemed to the contemporaries of Dr. Johnson so ridiculous that the wags based many a jest upon it. His belief that men got rid of their tails by sitting upon them would now scarcely raise a smile among anthropologists. Among his more startling propositions was the earnestly maintained one that the orang outang "was a class of the human species, and that its want of speech was merely accidental."

That Terrible Cow.

She was even more afraid of cows than most girls, so when she spied a placid animal recumbent under a tree peacefully chewing its cud she at first refused to go through the pasture at all. Her husband calmed her fears to some extent and they started off, when the cow slowly commenced to get up, hind legs first, as they always do. At this the little lady shrieked with terror and said: "Oh, Bob, hurry, hurry! He is getting ready to spring at us!"—New York Globe.

BRAINERD WITNESSES

The Names of Brainerd Persons Familiar to all.

Who are the witnesses?

They are Brainerd people—

Residents of Brainerd who have had kidney backache, kidney pills, bladder pills; who have used Doan's Kidney Pills. These witnesses endorse Doan's.

One Brainerd resident who speaks is D. M. Clark, hardware dealer, of 501 N. Fifth St. He says: "I have often recommended Doan's Kidney Pills for I have known of their merit for some time. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at H. P. Dunn's Drug Store, and have always found that they act just as represented."

Mr. Clark is only one of many Brainerd people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mr. Clark had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores. Not Beyond Help at 87
Sleep-disturbing bladder weakness, stiffness in joints, weak, inactive kidney action and rheumatic pains are all evidence of kidney trouble. Mrs. Mary A. Dean, 47 E. Walnut St., Taunton, Mass., writes: "I have passed my 87th birthday, and thought I was beyond the reach of medicine, but Foley Kidney Pills have proved most beneficial in my case." H. P. Dunn.—Adv't. mwf Happy Choice.

As between taking a ride with a drunken chauffeur and being shaved by an intoxicated barber, we believe we would choose to walk and let our whiskers drag the ground.—Galveston News.

Busy Windmill.
A windmill is employed in England to light a church and parsonage and pump the organ.

The Man Who Neglects Himself
When his condition points to kidney trouble takes an unwise risk. Backache, pain and soreness over the kidneys, nervous or dizzy spells, poor sleep, are all symptoms that will disappear with the regular use of Foley Kidney Pills. They put the kidneys and bladder in a clean, strong and healthy condition. H. P. Dunn.—Adv't. mwf Trouble Enough.

"What's the trouble here?"
"The bellboys are on a strike."
"Want more pay, I suppose?"
"No. A man came in a little while ago and asked to have Wladislaz Szaburesz paged."—Exchange.

Pauper Children.
There are in the workhouses of England and Wales over 9,000 children between three and sixteen years of age.

Young Women: Number Surprising
The number of young women who suffer with weak back, dizzy and nervous spells, dull headache and weariness is surprising. Kidney and bladder ills cause these troubles, but if Foley Kidney Pills are taken as directed relief follows promptly and the ills disappear. Contain no habit-forming drugs. H. P. Dunn.—Adv't. mwf
